

Professor Les Oxley

Position

Professor in Economics

Research Director, College of Business and Economics

Adjunct Professor, University of Western Australia

Associate Researcher, BRCSS-Network

Editor of the: Journal of Economic Surveys

Qualifications

B.A.(Hons.) (University of Wales)

M.A. (Sheffield)

Ph.D. (Tilburg)

Room

511a, Commerce Building

Contact Details

Phone: +64 3 364 2134

Internal Phone: 6134

Email: les.oxley@canterbury.ac.nz

Postal address:

Department of Economics,
University of Canterbury,
Commerce Building,
Forestry Road,
Private Bag 4800,
Christchurch,
New Zealand.

Research Interests

- Applied Econometrics;
- Economic Growth;
- Energy Economics;
- Economics of Innovation;
- Cliometrics

Current Projects

- Applied Econometrics
- Economic Growth
- Energy Economics
- Economics of Innovation
- Cliometrics

Recent Publications

"Refrigeration and Distribution: New Zealand Land Prices and Real Wages, 1873-1939 Era" (joint with David Greasley), Australian Economic History Review, 45, 1, 23-44, 2005

"Globalization and Real Wages in New Zealand 1873-1913" (joint with David Greasley), Exploration in Economic History 41, 26-47, 2004

"Modelling and forecasting the demand for electricity in New Zealand: A comparison of approaches" (joint with Koli Fatai and Frank Scrimgeour) Energy Journal, 24,1, 75-102, 2003

"Regime Shifts and Fast Recovery on the Periphery: New Zealand in the 1930s". (joint with David Greasley) Economic History Review, LV, 697-720, 2002